JOB DESCRIPTION:

The Deputy Head of Wardrobe will support the wardrobe team for a first-class production with duties including but not limited to:

- Maintaining the Production as instructed and dictated by the artistic requirements and direction of the Production
- Supporting the preparation and maintenance of all costumes and equipment required by your department, including checks prior to each performance
- Learn and perform dressing cues; from simple to extensive plots
- Performing costume maintenance and laundry duties including ironing
- Attending all rehearsals, show calls, maintenance calls, get-ins, fit-ups and get-outs as required, including emergency calls in the event of equipment failure or other incident, particularly if there is a risk of the cancellation of a performance
- Having an awareness of understudy and swing performances ahead of each show and making necessary adjustments, if any
- Compiling and keeping updated cue sheets and other relevant show paperwork including the costume show running bible, both soft and hard copy, to such a level as to ensure an accurate reference to allow the Production to be remounted at a later date including the Wardrobe show running bible
- Managing petty cash for your department and the timely placing of any orders for goods and equipment as approved by the Producer
- Maintaining good relationships with hirers and suppliers

PERSONAL REQUIREMENTS:

- Experience in the Wardrobe department of a large-scale commercial touring theatre
- Excellent hand and machine sewing skills
- Self-motivated problem-solving attitude and calm work under pressure
- Excellent communication skills and cross-departmental collaboration in a fast-paced environment.
- Excellent punctuality and time management.
- Familiarity with and adherence to current Health & Safety guidelines relevant to the production is essential, which may include working at height, using appropriate safety equipment and clothing and attending training as deemed necessary.
